LESSON PLANS TO ACCOMPANY

"Melville and Orwell: Two Sides of Empire"

by Tom Durwood

JOURNAL OF EMPIRE STUDIES SPRING 2011

| I. Name three books that George Orwell wrote. Which is his most famous? |
|---|
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| 2. When did Herman Melville write Moby Dick? What is the plot of this book? |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |

| 3. How does the author say these two authors are similar? What do they share that T.S. Eliot does not share? |
|--|
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| 4. NA/II II |
| 4. What is the author's thesis? |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| 5. What does the author use as proof or support for his argument? |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |

| 6. How did Melville and Orwell grow up? How does the author say that their life experiences affected their writings? |
|--|
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| 7. How does Melville's writing change over the course of his lifetime? How is Typee different from Moby Dick in its portrayal of different cultures? |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |

| 8. What is the "empire theory of literature?" Do you agree with it? | |
|--|---|
| | _ |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| 9. In which quadrant of the author's color wheel of empire does "The Great Gatsby" fit? Why? Where does "Of Mice and Men" fit? Where does "Ferris Bueller's Day Off" fit? Why? | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |

| 10. How do Melville and Orwell depict animals in their writings? What does this have to do with empire? |
|---|
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| · |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| · |

